

Service Line Material Consumer Notification

Federal regulations require that water systems notify all persons served by a service line classified as Lead, Galvanized Requiring Replacement (GRR), or Lead Status Unknown within thirty (30) days of the effective date (October 16, 2024) of the federal Lead and Copper Rule Revisions (LCRR).

Please certify the notification met the following criteria (by checking each line):

Notification was sent to affected customers on or before November 15, 2024. (40 CFR (141.85(e)(2))

Applicable only to community water systems: For new customers in buildings served by lead, galvanized requiring replacement, or unknown service lines, a notice meeting the criteria below will also be provided at the initiation of service. (40 CFR 141.85(e)(2))

The notification included information about the material makeup of the service line (lead, galvanized requiring replacement as defined in 40 CFR 141.84(a)(4), or an unknown material), including information about both the utility-owned sections and customer-owned sections of the service line where relevant. (40 CFR 141.85(e)(1))

The notification includes (pursuant to 40 CFR 141.85(e)(3)):

Steps a person can take to reduce lead exposure

Information about the opportunities to replace lead or galvanized service lines

Ways to identify the material of unknown service lines

The following EPA-mandated message (pursuant to 40 CFR 141.85(a)) was included in each letter:

Health effects of lead. Exposure to lead in drinking water can cause serious health effects in all age groups. Infants and children can have decreases in IQ and attention span. Lead exposure can lead to new learning and behavior problems or exacerbate existing learning and behavior problems. The children of women who are exposed to lead before or during pregnancy can have increased risk of these adverse health effects. Adults can have increased risks of heart disease, high blood pressure, kidney, or nervous system problems.

I have attached a copy of each type of notification delivered to my customers. (40 CFR 141.90(f)(4)(6))
